Both Sides Now

Bows and Flows of angel hair,
And ice-cream castles in the air,
And feather canyons ev'rywhere,
I've looked at clouds that way.

But now they only block the sun,
They rain and snow on ev'ryone.
So many things I would have done,
But clouds got in my way.

I've look at clouds from both sides now,
From up and down and still somehow

It's clouds illusions I recall;
I really don't know clouds at all.

Moons and Junes and ferris wheels,
The dizzy dancing way you feel,
As ev'ry fairy tale comes real,
I've looked at love that way.

But now it's just another show,
You leave 'em laughing when you go.

And if you care, don't let them know,
Don't give yourself away.

I've looked at love from both sides now,
From give and take and still somehow
It's love's illusions I recall;
I really don't know love at all.

Tears and fears and feeling proud,
To say "I love you" right out loud,

Dreams and schemes and circus crowds,
I've looked at life that way.

But now old friends are acting strange,
They shake their heads, they say I've changed,
But something's lost, but something's gained,
In living ev'ry day.

I've looked at life from both sides now,
From win and lose and still somehow
It's life's illusions I recall;
I really don't know life at all.

FREE FARE

The Free Fare, a musical group composed of four young men, combined rock with comedy as they performed before the student body. A week later, the group returned to give an evening presentation before a packed gym. The concert, sponsored by the Student Assembly, was enthusiastically received by all who were present. The performance also served as the kickoff point for the Winter Carnival festivities.

WINTER CARNIVAL

This year at T.H.S. a new school wide activity was introduced by the Student Assembly . . . a winter Carnival. Plans included a concert by the Free Fare, snow sculptures constructed by each of the classes, and a Snow Fair held in the gym. However, hopes for the snow creatures disappeared as temperatures rose and snow melted. Nevertheless, the Snow Fair saw the gym transformed by the Clubs' booths, which were both decorative and entertaining.

The Winter Carnival was topped off by a dance featuring the W.T. Christy. Many of the booths from the Snow Fair remained to decorate the dance-floor.

SENIORS IN ACTION

The editor and staff of the ANATH 1970 would like to express their appreciation to Mr. Paul Cunningham, Stefan Parkman, and the Tecumseh Herald for their assistance in our photography department. We would also like to extend our thanks to Mrs. Mary Allen, the faculty, and members of the office staff for their help and cooperation in preparing this book.

This years' annual staff tried to make the 1970 yearbook something more than other yearbooks have been in the past. We attempted to do this by employing new techniques and ideas, and making several changes in the yearbook format. Probably the most noticeable of these changes is our choice for a new title. To us, Senior Echoes, as yearbooks have been called in the past, did not seem representative of the annual because the book no longer pertains to the Seniors alone, but instead belongs to the entire student body. ANATH, the title of this years' annual, is more appropriate because it has meaning for both seniors and underclassmen. The Indian word "ANATH" means "farewell;" that is farewell to the seniors, and for everyone, farewell to another school year.

This years' introductory section was based on Joni Mitchell's song, Both Sides Now. We attempted to create the mood of the song through various pictures. Our head photographer, Marc Roberts, is responsible for much of the photographic work in this section and also that on pages 157, 158, and 159. On these last pages, Marc exhibits his creativity through various photographic techniques.

With these final words of explanation and recognition, the editor, advisor, and staff sincerely hope that the students, as well as the faculty and administration, enjoy the 1970 ANATH.
