Looking Forward to Looking Back

In my pocket I hold the past, where I planted my hopes and dreamed of my dreams.

One day in the future
one day I'll look back a collection of hopes all bundled in a stack.
Someday soon my life will expand, someday soon that's my plan.

Step by step,
day by day,
I'll build my life
without delay.
Each day a new,
each day a light,
a tunnel for me and a tunnel of life.

With a lonely moment or a glance out a window, is the time when the memories come out the most.

And very soon my times,
these times will be the first to unfold,
like a dropping sunset
fading from view,
but never my heart.

But now I'm looking forward to looking back on all the plans I left behind,
all the changes I made in time,
all the memories still fresh in my mind.

Toma comes to T.H.S.

The Toma Experience

Magically, the laughter and talking of the students of THS was silenced. All eyes focused on the figure before them. David Toma, detective, lecturer, drug addict, had stepped on to the stage.

Toma came to Tecumseh to inform and help students fight against drug and alcohol abuse. Toma's lecture was related to his own experience with drugs. It captured the audience's attention for the full two and a half hours.

Stories of "Charlie" a victim of a joint laced with angel dust, made the students and faculty flinch in disgust and sorrow.

Toma's experience with substance abuse is not just from working with addicts. He suffered a mental breakdown after losing his son. His psychiatrist prescribed tranquilizers and he became addicted to them. Toma recognized his problem the hard way. He tried to commit suicide. When that failed, he began to turn his life around.

Toma first discovered that the youth of America was heavily involved in drugs while he was a detective in Newark, New Jersey. He began to reach out, to try to stop the kids before it was too late. His initiative brought an appearance on "The Mike Douglas Show." That debut pointed out a whole new direction in David Toma's life.

He began touring across the country on the College Lecture Circuit. Toma's mother saw her son on television and helped him to realize the real problem was not in the colleges. He then started lecturing at high schools around the country. He began helping teenagers out of the rut of drug addiction with his message of "Love Yourself."

"I have a gift," said Toma. "I'm able to talk to kids on a one-to-one basis. And I know what I'm talking about."

When people heard the news that Toma was coming to THS, opinions differed. Some were curious, some thought he was just another grown-up coming to lecture them about how they were ruining their lives. The Christmas carol "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," was transformed into a sassy "David Toma's Coming to Town." The "I don't care" attitudes have changed. "He really cares," is the feeling of most of the student body of THS regarding Toma.

Toma has made a tremendous impact on THS and the community. He has left behind a realization that not all things are what they appear to be.

As part of a follow-up program, classes were offered on the day after Toma took the school by storm. From teenage suicide to drinking and driving, almost all of the subjects teenagers ever wondered about were offered.

"The classes were fun and very educational. I learned a lot," stated Melissa Baily, a freshman.

THS would like to extend a tremendous thank you to Toma, Show The Kids We Care, Tecumseh Task Force, and all the individuals for helping bring the "Toma Experience" to THS.

Toma relates well to students with his humor.

COMING HOME

We thought we knew these sidewalk cracks by heart but even they have altered in our absence, branching out on their own. The yard too has a new identity — some plants dead, others new. Inside, the knives and forks don't seem the same and feel wrong in our hands. The design is more extreme than we remember and there has been some subtle change in scale too. The touch of familiar things is strange, surfaces feel foreign as if we had brought back some art of foreignness. Even the old companions — tables and chairs, the light through a window — seem alien. We are back but not back all the way. Something odd has lodged in our senses, some foreign cinder makes us see things this way. Or maybe coming back makes us re-see what we thought we knew too well and gladly left behind — like friends who know so much about us we turn them into strangers. We left all this hoping it would hold together and keep our worries hostage in the attic. It did that fairly well but the effort seems to have forced these quiet alterations as we branched out toward the green possibilities of another world. We have lost that world now and are back here where sidewalk cracks veer in ways we don't recall. There is a vase we don't recognize, an accent not quite American, not quite anything else, hovers here. At dinner we hold the strange knives and forks, their points of balance oddly shifted, their odd shapes seasoning the meal with mystery.

An All Around Guy

This 1984-85 year introduced Dr. Tom Mueller as the new assistant principal at Tecumseh High School.

Dr. Mueller received his Doctrine in education at the University of Michigan and Eastern University. He also has a minor in college speech.

Before he came to our school he was employed at Clinton Community Schools. He said he chose Tecumseh because people are friendly, the students are good and the teachers really care for their students.

When asked what he thought was the most important school rule, Dr. Mueller replied, "Treat others as you would want them to treat you."

Where sports are concerned, Dr. Mueller is an all around guy. Dr. Mueller feels that sports are only for some people, but physical fitness should be practiced by all.

Dr. Mueller, at age 34, has one child and is expecting another soon.

Tecumseh has welcomed Dr. Mueller and hopes he is here to stay.

Floating Faculty Member

All of the faculty members have special interests which they enjoy doing in their spare time outside of school.

Mrs. Swift, the guidance office secretary, enjoys boating. Along with her husband, she owns a 32-foot cabin cruiser, which they keep at the Monroe Yacht Club on Lake Erie.

Their boat is equipped with a kitchen, dining room, and a bathroom. It has the capacity to sleep eight. The boat is also equipped with a ship to shore radio, a Marine radio, and a sniffer which will alert you if there is a gas leakage. Mr. and Mrs. Swift belong to the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Their main purpose of joining this organization was to learn more about boats and the skills and requirements needed for boating. Now that they have mastered these things, they are teaching others about their knowledge of boating through classes.

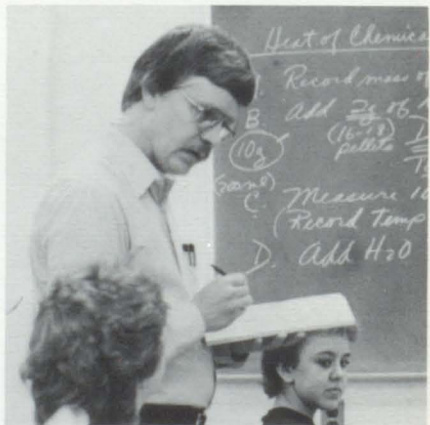

During the course of the summer, they visit other boat clubs, go to Canada, Boblo Island, Cedar Point, or they just cruise around Lake Erie.

This coming summer, Mr. and Mrs. Swift plan on taking the students who work in the Guidance Office to Boblo Island for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Swift really enjoy their boat and sharing it with their friends and family. They just wish they had more time to spend on their boat.

During a Biology II class, Mr. Nelson answers a question on the procedure that was previously explained.

Cunningham Collects History

One of our teachers, Mr. Cunningham, has a very interesting token collection. Although he only collects Michigan tokens, he has about 4,000 of them. His collection is divided into three parts; merchant, Civil War, and transportation. Merchant tokens have been used since the 1600's. A storeowner would have a coin press operator make him some penny sized metal chips. Then he would have the store's name pressed into them. A trading post would be a common place to find tokens. A trapper would bring some furs in and the owner would give him some tokens to spend in the store.

The second type of tokens are Civil War tokens. These were issued during the Civil War because of the shortage of money. During a war, silver coins were hoarded, not spent.

The third type of tokens are transportation tokens. They are the common bus tokens used still today in cities such as Ann Arbor.

They make up a large amount of Mr. Cunningham's collection.

He started his collection in 1971. Some of his favorite tokens have pictures on them. They are mostly merchant tokens with pictures of products and trades on them. His oldest ones date back to the Civil War. Although Michigan was not involved in the Civil War, it was a state during that period.

Mr. Cunningham stores his collection in three ways. Mostly they are kept in folders. The folders are cardboard squares with cellophane windows in them. Since they measure 2" by 2" a single token is kept in one folder. They are then put in boxes and put in a bank vault. Another way to store them is in rolls. The tokens are put in coin rolls and stored in boxes. He stores a few tokens loose, but he commented, "I do have a few shoeboxes under my bed with tokens in them."

Enjoying Life

Not only were this year's student teachers good with their classes they also had fun outside of school. Ms. Vincent, who worked in Mr. Herman's class, filled her time with reading, dancing, and socializing. While she attended Jackson Community College, University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University she performed with the Rosier Players and the Starfleet Ambassadors. Ms. Vincent feels that teaching is a challenge, and Tecumseh is a friendly place to do it.

Ms. Yepez is busy outside of school with writing for a writer's digest and poetry for herself. Ms. Yepez also sang and played keyboards during her stay at Siena Heights. She feels that Siena Heights prepared her for teaching at a high school because of the great emphasis on personal development. Although Ms. Yepez started out as an Art major, she found that she enjoyed writing very much so she switched her major to English in her sophomore year. She feels that the students and teachers at Tecumseh are great to work with.

And finally, Ms. Ragatz worked very hard teaching a variety of classes. She enjoyed T.H.S. very much and she felt that everyone was very nice and helpful. Although she enjoys teaching, she likes her free time and she keeps busy with running, dancing, and swimming.

Ms. Ragatz's two majors are Mathematics and Political Science. When Ms. Ragatz first began college she was in pre-law. At the end of her junior year she changed her mind and decided to go into teaching. Because of this she had to squeeze three years of school into a year and a half. Despite the effort that this took, she is glad because she enjoys teaching very much.

Behind The Wheel

A bus drivers job is not as easy as some think.

They have to be at the bus garage a little before 6:30 a.m. to check their oil, transmission fluid, radiator water, brake fluid, all lights, horn and tires. If there is anything broken the drivers make a report and give it to the mechanics to fix.

After this daily check-up they start their runs at 6:55 a.m. to pick up the high schoolers which takes about 35 minutes. Then at 8:00 the elementary run starts and takes about 45 minutes.

To become a bus driver you have to be 18 years old, be qualified for a chauffer's license and when you are a new bus driver a course is required to go to two times a year and as the years go by the course is shortened to one day per year.

Bus drivers have to be alert and watch the road as well as the kids.

Now that we know what bus drivers have to do maybe we will all appreciate the care the drivers put forth every day!

Teacher of the Year

You only have to talk to Mrs. Wilson for a moment to realize what a special person she is and why she is so popular with the students at T.H.S.

Jan Wilson was born and grew up in Flint, Michigan. She attended Carman High School as a teenager and surprisingly only took two years of French. After high school she attended Central Michigan University, received her Masters Degree at Eastern, and also attended the University of Dijon for two years.

Mrs. Wilson decided to become a French teacher because she thinks it is very important for us to learn about others; how they live, how they are alike and different from us. "We look at ourselves as huge and powerful," said Mrs. Wilson. "We are a self centered nation and we need to learn that other nations are just as intelligent as we are."

When she isn't teaching French, Mrs. Wilson does needlework and she loves to travel. She has been to France five times. Four of these she has accompanied her students. "My favorite things in France are the Chateaux and the pastries," she smiled. "Especially the pastries!"

In 1982 she married her husband Tim and they are now very excited — awaiting the birth of their first child.

Mrs. Wilson is dedicated to her students and her work for them, and her cheerful smile brightens each one's day. We thank her and congratulate her for being chosen Teacher of the Year 1984-1985.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson enjoy a night on the town.

High School — Junior High, Which and Why!

In the survey we asked two questions: Do you like the high school better than the junior high? Why? And are you intimidated by having classes with upperclassmen? Why? After we collected and counted them, we came up with the following totals. A total of 182 freshmen answered the questionnaire, 172 freshmen said they liked the high school better for varied reasons such as: Larger school, open campus, better food, not having to walk to buses, and picking own classes. As one freshman said, "I like all the different people and the harder work." Another freshman commented, "There is more of a challenge to do well, and the education quality is better." The remaining freshmen liked the junior high better for such reasons as: Friendlier teachers, upperclassmen harrasment, less crowded, and they knew more people there. As a freshman pointed out, "No matter what the junior high looked like, it was the people in it that counted." There were 176 freshmen that said they were not intimidated by upperclassmen. One freshman said, "Most of them are really nice and the ones that aren't don't matter." Six freshmen said they were intimidated by upperclassmen. One freshman said, "You feel you have to do better than them to prove yourself." Another said, "They seem to feel they are a much higher class than us and are allowed to push us around." A third freshman admitted, "Mostly in Algebra, it makes me feel like I'm nothing more than a dumb junior high person."

Decorative Lockers

The first day of school you walk in and go to your locker, you open it and BLAH! It's bare and colorless. So that night you go home and thrash through piles of magazines, tearing out pictures of whatever tickles your fancy. Then you plaster your locker with stickers, posters, pictures etc.

Most of the girls plaster their lockers with pictures of gorgeous guys, their boyfriends picture, and they usually have a mirror. Guys, on the other hand, plaster their lockers with girls, their favorite rock groups, and pictures of their favorite beer. You know, all that cool stuff.

When you walk down the halls, just take a minute and stop and look at the way people decorate their lockers, it's interesting!

Freshmen Putdowns

Once again the freshmen take their turn at being the low life of high school. Even before entering high school, it was already decided that they would be cut down and made to feel terrible. Although it is not fun, they put up with it quite well.

Some of the favorite cut downs by upper-classmen are: punky, stupid, slow, losers, and airheads. These are just a small portion of the cut downs that are used on freshmen, but the worst was put into words by Jeff McMunn, sophomore, who said, "Freshmen, I don't speak to Freshmen."

Although freshmen are cut down almost constantly, they all seemed to enjoy their first year here tremendously.

Freshmen, Jody Nicholson, Kristy Feldkamp, and Angela Barrie display the popular rendition of see no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil, but do they keep to these standards?

Fashions Here and Everywhere

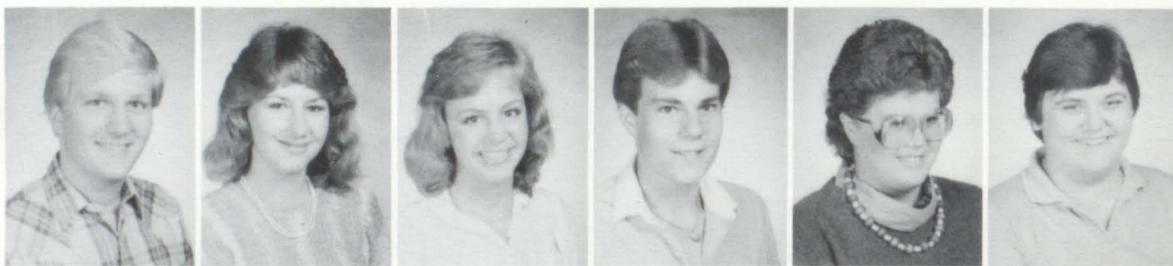

Along with a new year comes new fashions. It is the opinion of many students here at Tecumseh High School that cropped jeans with checked or striped designs, big sweaters, wildly colored socks and fluorescent earrings are the newest and biggest hits.

Even though these fashions are really popular, Kelly LeVeck has a different taste, "I like faded jeans and sweatshirts."

The fashions here like polo shirts, turtle-necks, concert shirts, layered socks, and loafers differ a great deal from the designs of New York and Paris, but there is still a fashion for everyone, let your own taste decide which is best for you.

Junior Magazine Sales

The junior magazine sales got off with a booming start, thanks to Business Managers, Todd Bryden and Sue Neibarger.

The juniors had almost two weeks to go out and try to sell their designated quota, which was for each of the 227 students to sell at least 15 subscriptions and they would reach their goal. They started September 21 til October 8, 1984.

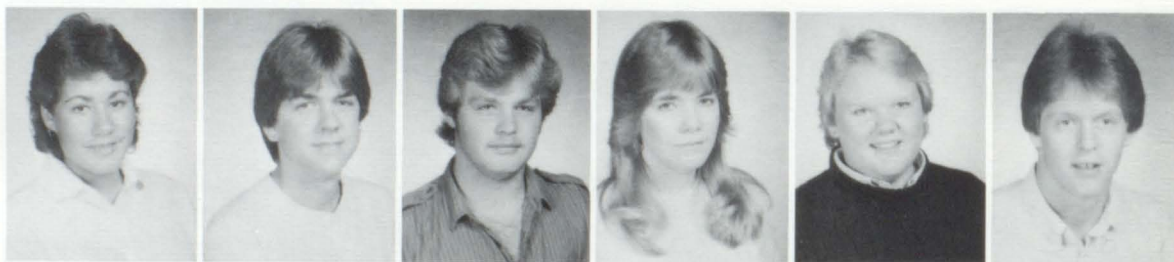

And the results ... the junior class sold $11,000 worth of subscriptions, $4,000 short of the $15,000 goal they wished to reach. But they did better than the two previous junior classes without an extension the other two classes had.

The 40% credited to the junior class was divided up as follows; 30% went to the students. It may go toward your senior pictures, senior announcements, senior yearbook, and/or your cap and gown. Seven percent goes to the class which is going toward the prom and the 1985 Christmas dance, and any other class related expenses. The remaining three percent is for prizes and publicity.

Jason Carter, the junior class president commented, "I'm satisfied just to know we topped the class of '85."

La Vacances En France

How did you spend your summer vacation? Five Juniors decided to take a trip abroad for three weeks. Visiting mainly France, but also stopping in Switzerland and Italy. It was the highlight of their summer.

The students enjoyed trying various French foods and experiencing different cultural habits. "The food was terrific except for one night when we had cow's tongue," recalled Julie Foss.

Some of the favorite places visited were Paris, the Riviera, the chateaux region, and the Mont St. Michel. "We're already planning our next trip in a couple of years," Mike Misiak said when asked if he would like to go back.

ACADEMICS

Excellence is Their Goal

This years math department is considered to be excellent in its teaching methods.

As Mr. Raeburn, the head of the math department, puts it "This years staff is the best." The students appreciate the teacher's efforts. Dan Brackney, a freshman said, "without math we would be lost."

The many courses which the math department offers are General Math, Geometry, Business Math, Algebra I and II, Pre-Calculus, Computer Literature, and Advanced Basic.

Math skills are important in the proper use of computers. As the head of the math department, Mr. Raeburn also has been in charge of the math lab which helps the students understand more about the computers.

Mary Bucheimer tackles a Computer Lit problem.

Mr. Raeburn concentrates on a student's problem.

Binh Lieu figures out her program in Computer Lit class.

Kim Speller and Jamie Kittle glance just in time in Mrs. Roberts' Social Studies class.

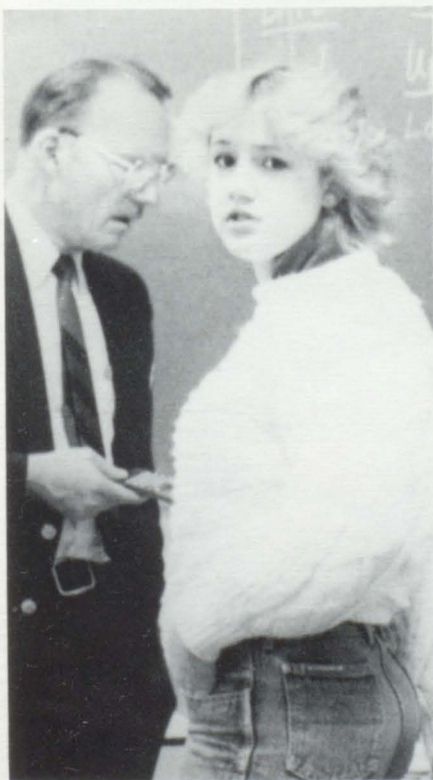

Successful In Many Ways

This years Social Studies Department was very successful. The students enjoyed the classes and felt that they learned more than they thought they would. As stated by Tiffany Winzeler, freshman, "I feel that social studies taught me something about the world that I'll probably never see."

Mr. Lovett, chairperson of the department, feels that the use of computers has advanced social studies instruction in many ways. The computers have helped the department to take advance of technology that was not available before. The use of computers has allowed more time for writing, and it shows in the project for the year. This year every student in the social studies classes wrote a report and put it on the computer.

The Social Studies Department includes six classes. They are Basic Social Studies, World Affairs, World History, American History, Psychology and Senior Social Studies.

It is felt by all of the social studies students that these classes are enjoyable and useful.

Sherri Hodson asks Mr. Whelan about the Model Economy in Senior Social Studies.

Donna Heesen laughs at a good joke in Senior Social Studies.

The Joy of English

Where would this world be without English classes? History would never have been recorded without stories told by many authors. But English isn't just stories, it's grammar also.

The department, headed by Mrs. Muncie, offers Tecumseh students various choices each year, ranging anywhere from reading lab to public speaking to world literature.

The faculty teaching the different subjects are well educated and skilled. Mrs. Glenn, Mrs. Diepenhorst, Mrs. Wakeford, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Lancaster, Mrs. Kinnard, and Mrs. Muncie all try to make these classes learning experiences as well as a lot of fun. They teach us how to extend our reading comprehension and expand our vocabulary. Also, they help to correct punctuation errors, all while creating a pleasant atmosphere. Sophomore, Bob Terry commented, "English gave me a lot of knowledge I can use even after graduation." Students learn such skills as how to write a good term paper, how to read faster, and how to give a good speech. Maybe because of the aid of some of our teachers, one student could someday record more history through well-written and correctly punctuated stories.

Annamia Knierim gives a persuasive speech in public speaking.

Heidi Kuhman gives her public speaking class the facts from her informative speech.

Will Chris Stubbs and Sahara Swidan create another Atomic Bomb in Chemistry?

Exploring The World Of Science

"Oh how gross!" could be a comment from a Biology I student in the process of dissecting a frog. It could also have been from a Biology II student after dissecting a pig or transplanting chicken embryo limbs. But this year it was heard from a Physics student after being bombed by an egg during the annual Physics Olympics Egg Drop.

"If you want to learn about living organisms, substances, and their compositions, geology, or any of the other wonders of nature you can learn it in our Science department," remarked Mr. Curth, chairman of the Science Department. This year, students learned such things as life in the five kingdoms and life as it began. Students also studied life, Earth, and it's structure.

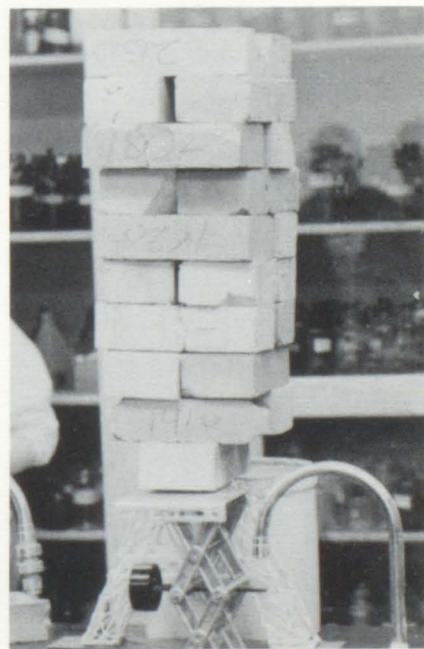

The Science department this year consisted of Mr. Curth, Mr. Burns, Mr. Nelson, and Mrs. Coba.

Grace Carlson and Kira Wilkins test the strength of their Physics bridge.

Tama Wallace studies various animal parts in Biology II.

The unbreakable Physics bridge! Built by Steve Witzke, it wouldn't even break if Kira Wilkins stood on top of it!!

Passport to the World

"It is very interesting and rewarding to learn the language and the culture of a foreign country" Sally Every, Freshman, commented.

Of the million of languages known throughout the world, T.H.S. offers French and Spanish. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Coba teach not only the respective languages, but they also teach about the cultures that we are learning the languages of. "In my opinion, learning new languages is a whole new experience because you learn so many new aspects about the people of a country," said Mrs. Wilson.

Beneficial to spelling and pronunciation, both teachers make up games to make the learning more fun. Both languages participate in Foreign Language Week at Adrian College. To give the students a chance to experience the food and the lifestyle of the French and Spanish speaking countries, culture days are given. All foreign language classes are of enormous size so apparently foreign language is a very popular choice for a class at T.H.S.

Mrs. Wilson concentrated on the daily oral assignments.

Diana Lawrence, a junior, and Julie Foss, also a junior, enjoyed their food on culture day.

Clark Griffin, a freshman, a little confused about the usage of the language lab headphones.

Mrs. Coba reading to Kelly Feldkamp.

Tom Foster, a senior, trying to work while Michelle Rapin, a senior, and Mr. Graham discuss the assignment.

Moving Ahead

"The demands for a business occupation are rising yearly with continual change in opportunities," said Mr. Graham. He ought to know, he's been head of the business department for twenty years. The business courses offered here can lead to occupational use directly from high school. The courses offered at THS in the 84-85 school year were: Typing I and II, Personal Typing, General Business, Business Law, Shorthand I and II, Office Machinery and Accounting I and II.

According to Mr. Graham, the number of students taking a business course in 84-85 school year was just about the same as previous years except the number of typing students has increased.

Education in business can be used for personal use such as records for small businesses or income taxes even if it's not the career for you.

Dawn Ketola, a senior, and Garry Richardson, a senior, work on their homework.

Everyone quietly studying.

Shelly Greenman, a junior, learning about business.

Home Economics

"No matter what you do after high school, a course in Independent Living is essential," states Home Economics teacher Mrs. Forgacs. Independent Living is a new class offered at THS. The topics discussed range from reading a lease to managing your income.

Other such classes include Clothing and Textiles 1, Food 1, Child Development, and Advance Foods and Nutrition.

Foods and Nutrition is a class where emphasis is placed on how to eat nutritionally. Students are allowed to incorporate the principles learned in laboratory experiences.

For the future parent or future child care worker, a Child Development class is offered. This class looks at the importance of planning for parenthood, personal care of children, and the stages of development.

Clothing and Textiles is designed to cover such topics as buying and caring for clothes, wardrobe planning and getting the most out of your budget.

Once again, a remarkable number of male students are plunging into all sorts of Home Economic classes. For Home Ec is not just a class for cooks and seamstresses anymore. The courses offered are ones you really can't live without.

Angie Miller, a freshmen, working hard on her Home Ec project.

Mrs. Forgacs helping Susan Rickard on her sewing project.

Sandra Siemers, a foreign exchange student, working on an embroidery project.

Kelly Oliver, a freshmen, working contently on a sewing project.

Mr. Ondrovick explaining where wood came from to one of his students, Jeff Hawkins.

Industrial Arts

Did you ever wonder how people learn to build? Well, there are many classes you can attend to gain the knowledge needed in building your dreamhouse, or just a simple shed.

You can receive this knowledge in classes such as; Wood Tech, Machine Shop, Drafting, Metals, Power and Energy.

Mr. Ondrovick who teaches the course also added, "Students enjoy this class and learn skills which will stay with them for many years."

David Flores trying to make a model of his dream house.

Anath

The theme of the 1985 Anath is "Looking Forward To Looking Back." Careful consideration went out in choosing this theme. The staff chose this one because they wanted the students to look forward to looking back at their years at T.H.S.

This year's edition of the Anath has been improved over the past year because of many changes that have taken place. There are now new editors for each of the five departments. Sports was separated from Layout and Design, more copy has been added and there are better pictures.

The five departments; Business, Layout and Design, Copy, and Photography are efficiently run by 15 members.

The business department handles all of the monies of the Anath staff as well as organizing the books and communication and ad sales.

Copy assignments are given out by the Copy department. They also edit, type and design the format of all copy.

The students in the Layout and Design department are the ones responsible for designing and completing pages. They write all captions under the pictures. Their ideas area considered when planning the theme for it is their job to express it.

The entire Sports department controls the Sports section. They design the pages and write the copy. It is their job to get in touch with the coaches and discuss the season before planning that section.

All the photos which are displayed in this issue are taken by the Photography department. Not only do they take the pictures, but they develop them as well. They also come up with original ideas for pictures.

The Latest Scoop

The Orange Spiral consists of 17 hardworking students who produce a fine school paper. The newspaper informs the students and faculty about school activities and community happenings.

Most of the students on the staff attend summer camp at Bowling Green State University. Some of the classes they attend are Editorial, Feature, and Copy classes.

The students on the staff use the facilities at the Tecumseh Herald to lay out copy, set up each issue, and print the entire paper.

The Orange Spiral staff puts out 12 outstanding issues per school year. These issues keep us informed and entertained.

The staff includes: Jody Stevens — Advisor, Sue Palmer — Executive Editor, Grant Bauman — Production Editor, Sean Kazmierczak — Sports Editor, Sharon Martin — Copy Editor.

Anne Greene, a senior, enjoys the fun of typing on the computers.

Vo-Tech helps young men and women fulfill their career goals by offering them training and experience.

A student was quoted on how she feels about Vo-Tech, “You learn more by working with hands on material at Vo-Tech rather than sitting in the classroom, listening to the teacher explain how it’s done.”

Vo-Tech offers a variety of courses ranging from Machine Trades to Cooperative Education.

Whatever field you are looking into, Vo-Tech may have the answer to your future goals.

A Child Teaches

It's often said that a child teaches. That was often the case in the Cross-Age Tutoring program at T.H.S. Tutors from T.H.S. went to the various elementary schools in order to work with the kids, to learn from them along with teaching them. It proved to be an enjoyable experience for both the tutors and the kids. Romance even enters into the picture as many of the kids form crushes on their tutors.

There is a theme for the Cross-Age Tutoring program which was "He or She who teaches, learns." Most of the tutors would agree that the main thing they learn is patience. Even with lots of patience is needed, the effort is worth it. A lot of gratification is gained by helping a child to learn. The tutors often come back with an inflated self image daily because their kids look up to them and openly idolize them. The little kids do so much to make the tutors feel needed, loved and appreciated that it's a valuable experience for all.

Under the direction of Karla Sutherland, the program is run superbly allowing the tutors to learn many valuable aspects of life with small children. The program is an asset to not only the high school but to all the elementary schools as well.

Strike Up The Band

Band had a strong beginning this year with more than one hundred students in the marching band. The band thrilled audiences with routines to songs like "Manic" and "All Night Long."

When concert season began the marching band split into two bands. The Symphonic band had thirty-two members and the Concert band had seventy members. Both bands were exceptionally good with many great members. They excelled at Festival, Solo and Ensemble and many concerts. Both bands played at commencement and they played in many parades throughout the year.

Band helps many students to learn to appreciate music and to express themselves through music. Many students also learned the meaning of working together and depending upon one another. When asked how she felt about being a band member Lisa Lolley, freshman, said "I am very proud to be a band member. I feel that the Tecumseh Bands have a lot going for them. I also enjoy being part of this "family" because everyone is always there helping each other."

The Sound Of Music

During sixth hour of every day thirty-three high school students meet in room 125. Many days after school sounds of music flow from the room. What could be producing such pleasing sounds? The T.H.S. Mixed Choir.

Under the direction of Miss Helen Bendes students will learn to sing properly, to read music, and vocal talents. When asked about the Mixed Choir Lesley Garcia commented, "People who don't know how to sing, choir will show you how, and it's a great subject to get into."

The choir has participated in many outside activities such as the Christmas Parade, All-County Choir, a visit to the Milton C. Porter Center and various concerts they held in the Civic Auditorium.

To produce a new look for the choir, the students held two fund raisers. This money will go toward new choir robes.

Next year an Honors Choir is expected to become part of the school curriculum. The requirements for acceptance into this class are: one year of high school choir, obtaining a B average or better and an audition if necessary. This will not be a class for beginners.

When asked about her class Miss Bendes replied, "We have had a number of students who have showed outstanding abilities in choir ..."

Choir might not be for everyone, but everyone should attend a concert and see for themselves how spectacular the Tecumseh High Mixed Choir really is!

Physical Education

If you enjoy badminton, tennis, volleyball, and gymnastics, you'll probably enjoy one of the most popular classes at T.H.S. Phys. Ed is enjoyed by many students. It is taught by the qualified staff of Mr. Oxley, Miss Fisher, and Mrs. Richardson.

As one student states, "Phys. Ed is an opportunity to be competitive."

While Phys. Ed is only part of the program, as a sophomore you will be required to take Health a graduate course from T.H.S.

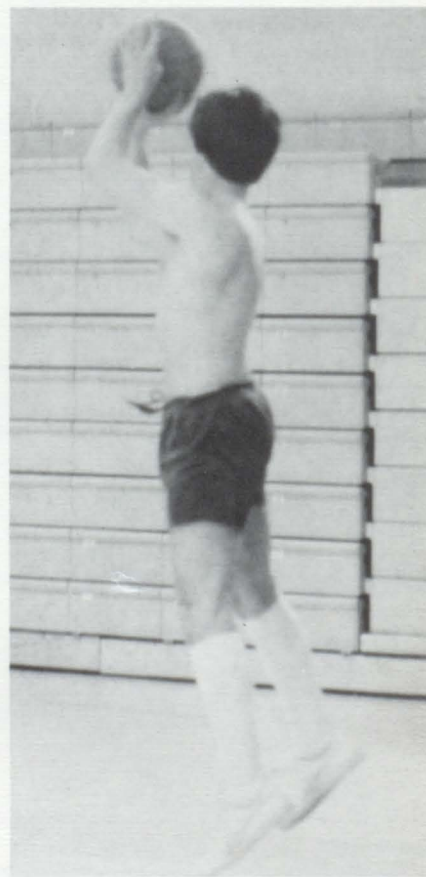

You will learn the basics of street drugs — from a bottle of aspirin to many different severe drugs. People from the Crisis Walk-In Center will join you and help you learn the statistics of drugs.

"Although you think of health as the common cold, you'll discover many other factors," exclaimed a sophomore. "Miss Fisher and Mrs. Richardson are great teachers."

The classes are tough but with the help of the qualified staff, you're always willing to learn.

Experiencing the Job World

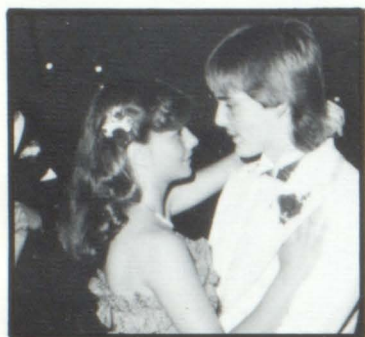

Career Education is a class designed for T.H.S. sophomores. Even though this class is required, many students, such as Amy Revels, find it "Very rewarding, I have learned a great deal of essentials for getting a job when I get out of high school."

In Career Education the students are taught how to write good resumes and job applications. In addition to the fundamentals, students are shown ways of finding a job that's right for them.

When asked about his classes, Mr. Nix, the teacher of Career Education, replied, "They give me alot of enjoyment and I give them the abilities to go out and get the job they want."

There is, along with regular class work, individual assignments the students have to partake in.

When sophomores leave Mr. Nix's class they will all have a better understanding of the job oriented world around them.

A Gathering of Scholastic Excellence

The intellects of THS all gathered together into one club titled National Honor Society. In order to be a member of NHS it is essential to have a grade point average of 3.0 or better and apply and be voted in by the faculty based on character, leadership and service.

This year, NHS had approximately 90 members and contributed to various major functions throughout the year. They formed a tutoring program, held a Christmas party for the elderly and an Easter party for some children of the community. They also had a booth at the Winter Carnival, sponsored a dance and were in attendance at the league banquet. NHS provided a scholarship for one lucky member, were guides for various school functions and held an induction ceremony for new and old members alike. Overall, NHS had an extremely active year which benefited all. It is a club that recognizes scholastic excellence and provides many invaluable services to the community.

The officer's were: Pres. — Kelli Crittenden; V.P. — Karen Prezioso; Sec. — Michelle Oberst; and Tres. — Grace Carlson. Mr. Nix would like to close with the thought, "If we have made life a little easier for those less gifted or for the lonely or for the less fortunate, we have succeeded."

FCA

Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a very influential and active club here at THS. Their main activities for the 1984-85 school year were a bowling tournament with the Varsity Club, a Christmas party for the occupants of the Tecumseh Nursing Home, and an Easter party for mentally and physically disturbed children. FCA's members have also enjoyed entertainment among themselves this year. There was a time for attending and playing various sporting events, attending concerts, and even enjoying a pizza.

The 1984-85 officers were; Pres. — Jeanne Vanderheide, V.P. — Jamie Nicholson, Sec. — Sally Lemanski, Tres. — Ron Papsdorf, Advisor — Mr. Curth.

Letterholders In Action

If having a good time with fellow varsity letterholders sounds exciting, then the Varsity Club is a club for you.

Some of the years events included attending a Michigan v. Michigan State hockey game, and holding the second annual bonfire for TICWSS week. They also sponsored a dance which was a success, and attempted a bowling party with FCA.

The only membership requirement is a varsity letter. The purposes of the Varsity Club have always been to promote interest in the school athletic programs, raise the standards of scholarship and sportsmanship, and give athletic publicity.

As Tim Vannatter commented, "It's nice to have a club that's offered to the sport oriented students of Tecumseh High."

The officer's were Pres. — Bill Rinne; V.P. — Tom Moore; Sec. — Lisa Mcloughlin; Tres. — Andrea Clark; Advisor — Mr. Curth.

We've Got Spirit

The members of this year's Pep Club were very enthusiastic. They worked hard all year making spirit posters for all of the sports. One of the biggest things that the Pep Club participated in this year was Homecoming Week. The tug-of-war was once again the big event. The juniors prevailed, out tugging the other three classes and the seniors won the spirit award. This was all made possible because of the hard work of the Pep Club.

Some other big events that the Pep Club was involved in were the Winter Carnival and sponsoring a dance. For the Winter Carnival they had a sponge throw booth. It was very successful and everybody had a good time, including the people that volunteered to be targets. The dance was also a big hit. The club sponsored the Valentine's Day dance. During the dance two lucky people received a teddy bear from the Pep Club.

All of the officers worked extremely hard to make it an exciting year for everybody. The officers were Pres. — Ruth Langmeyer; Vice Pres. — Sherrie Kanous; Sec. — Renee Solarski and Tres. — Tama Wallace. The officers felt that although a large amount of money was spent, it was spent on worthwhile things.

French Club

The 1984-85 year was an exciting one for the French Club. Under the supervision of Madame Wilson, the members and their officers had a rewarding year.

Besides the regular meetings, the French Club participated in many other activities. They decorated the gym beautifully for the Homecoming Dance. In October they held a Halloween Party in which each guest dressed as his or her favorite french person. In December, the club went caroling through the WestHaven subdivision singing Christmas Carols all in French. At the Winter Carnival the club had a make-your-own-button booth which proved to be a great success. The club's highlight of the year was a trip to Detroit to eat authentic french cuisine.

Madame Wilson's dedication to this club is shown by her effort to encourage students to attend all the french activities in Tecumseh and the surrounding areas.

Spanish Club

The 1984-85 Spanish Club, currently under the direction of Senora Coba, had an enthusiastic year! "Despite the lack of events the club had quite a lively group," says Cheryl Gonzales.

The chief money-making event was the Winter Carnival. The participants held an afterschool dinner which they prepared themselves. The grand finale for the year was dinner at Chi-Chi's in Ann Arbor.

Even with the lack of events, club members enjoyed themselves immensely. Next year the club hopes to be just as successful as it was in the 1984-85 year.

The officers this year are: President — Cheryl Gonzales; Vice President — Sue Bunch; Secretary — Jeanne Poling; Treasurer — Annamia Knierim; Historian — Rod Dotson; Advisor — Mrs. Cobo.

You Gotta Have Art

Art Club is for anyone who has an interest in art. The members of the Art Club take part in activities at school and around the community.

At school, during Christmas they paint courtyard windows, learn basket weaving, silk-screening and sponsor school dances.

Helping the community is one of the specialties of the Art Club. The biggest activity was making centerpieces for the Tecumseh Products Anniversary Celebration. At homecoming the members painted the store windows downtown to promote spirit for our football team. One of the activities for the school and for the community is the Winter Carnival. The club put up a booth where they made spin art for the customers. As Liz Follas said, "You gotta have art!"

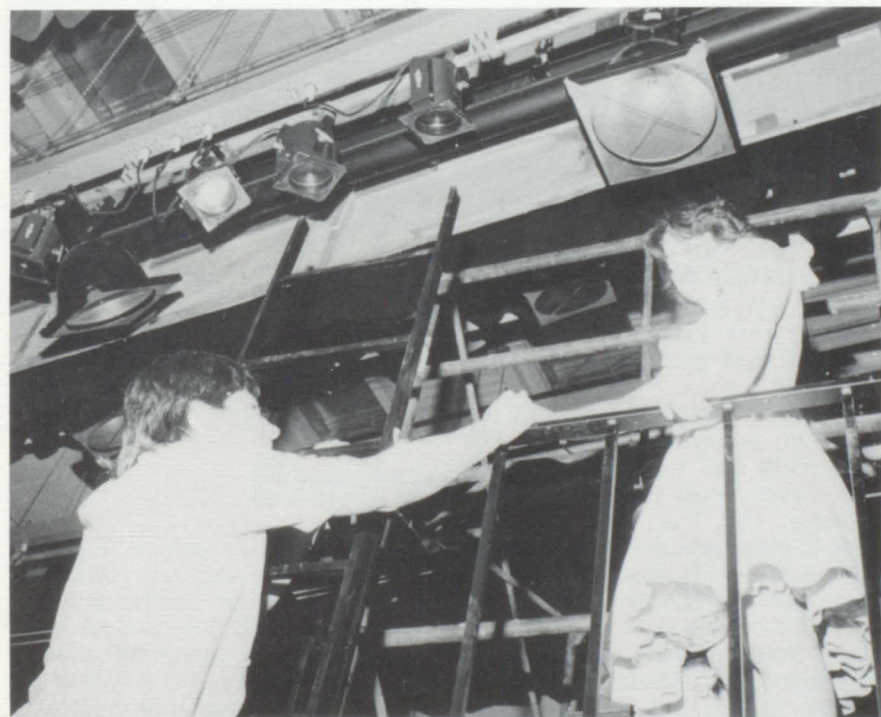

The advisor for the Art Club is Ann Merrill. The officers are Pres. — Lydia Marks; V.P. — Kelly Kurutz; Sec. — Tiffaney Winzeler; Tres. — Kaily Cubberly.

Tony, played by Ron Papsdorf, is meeting with the love of his life Maria, played by Kim White.

Impressive Performance

Impressive. That's the only word that could possibly describe the Tecumseh Youth Theatre's presentation of West Side Story, the tale of two gangs, the Sharks and the Jets, Puerto Rican and white boys fighting over territory.

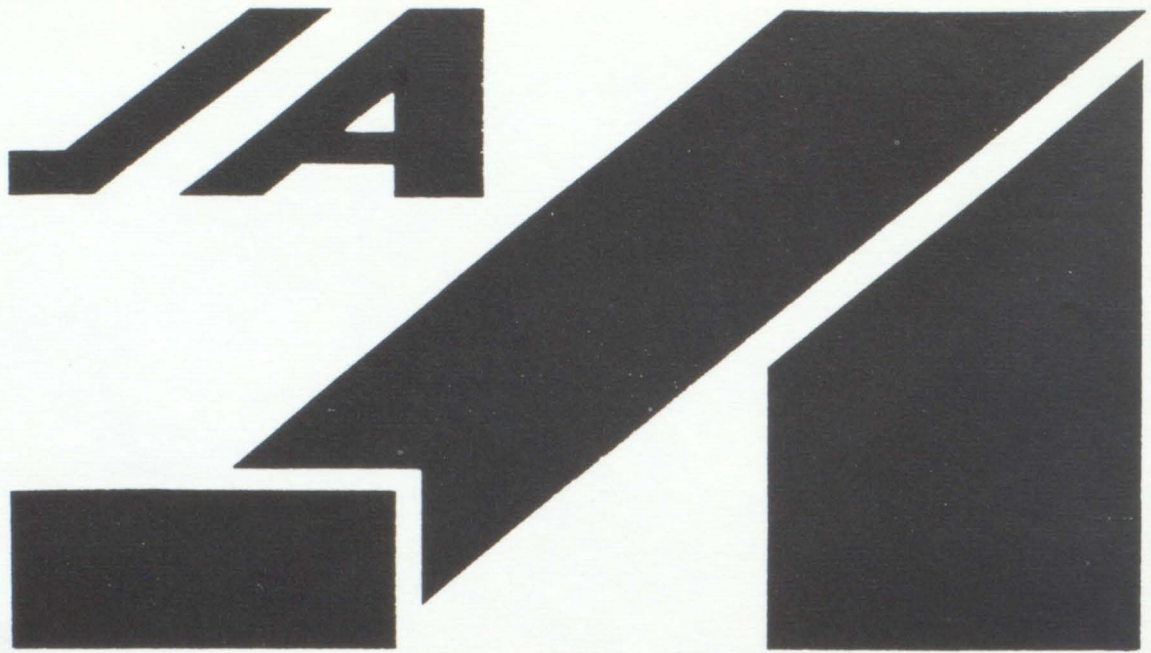

By chance, during this feud, a former member of the white gang, Tony, (played by Ron Papsdorf) and the sister of the Puerto Rican gang leader, Maria, (played by Kim White) fell in love.

However, love was not the basis of this exciting, humorous, musical. Hatred was the driving force behind it all. Tony, out of hatred for the Sharks and love for Riff, the leader of the Jets, killed Maria's brother Bernardo because he took Riff's life.

Throughout the play, Tony and Maria's undying love did not diminish. They saw only each other and decided to run away together, because Chino, Bernardo's friend and Maria's fiancé, was out to avenge Tony's murder of Bernardo.

Sadly, the musical ends in tragedy Tony receives the misinformation that Maria is dead and in his grief runs out to find the same fate. Just as he learns that Maria is really alive, Chino kills him.

As Maria said, "I can kill now because I hate now." tears streaked down the faces of the audience and the stage grew dark for the last time.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

Junior Achievement

Junior Achievement is an organization which allows students to mass produce items and then sell them. Mr. Pat Cronin, advisor/director of the Tecumseh Company helped his workers make such objects this year as a wooden grocery list pad holder and a pinboard.

Tecumseh originally started out with two companies this fall, but eventually one went bankrupt. A new event took place this year though, the J.A. company of Tecumseh competed with the one from Adrian. "It was tough, otherwise our companies would have done a lot better," commented David Schadewald, Vice-President of Production. David, along with Chris Thompson (company president), received an award this year for his outstanding achievement. Congratulations people of J.A.

Business Club

T.H.S. Business Club got off to a great start this year. The year was full of activities, but not as quite as many as last year. They started off the year by having their annual pot luck in October. And then in December they carried out another annual event which was their card writing party. They participated in the Winter Carnival, they had the Candle Wheel which is a custom this club has. There was a speaker that came and talked with members and nonmembers were also invited.

Winding the year to a close, the club had a party at the Pizza Inn. At the party they gave the seniors a wish of good luck.

Even though this club does things they do every year it doesn't make them less educational and exciting. The advisor is Mrs. Prettyman, President — Sue Greene, Vice President — Rod Dotson, Secretary — Peggy McCarley, Treasurer — Matt Meyers.

Foreign Exchange Students

France, Germany, Chile, Italy, do any of these sound like some places you would like to explore while in high school? There are various ways to find out about the many cultures of America; by reading or looking in books are among the many, but the most informative way is to be able to get acquainted with a Foreign Exchange Student who has decided that the United States sounded like a great place to be, and ventured to Tecumseh.

Coming from a Republic on the Pacific Coast of South America, Maria Cobo from Chile exclaims the thing she likes most about America is the food. Maria says that she really likes Tecumseh, but in the first few months of being in America she was homesick, but after school started things got a lot better. Maria got involved in the Spanish Club and Chorus during school. After school she took up an aerobicise class. The rest of her time was occupied by shopping or listening to music. When winter came, Maria got out and took advantage of the "wonderful white stuff," and ice skated and snowmobiled, since snow is not common in Chile. Maria also says that sometimes it's hard to keep up with the fast pace of America and is not use to the fast food restaurants, but likes them.

She comments that football is called soccer in their country, but "soccer" is played like American football.

When Maria returns home her plans are to stay home and visit with her family, but only for twenty days. She then will be off to Santiago College, since she has already graduated from the private school she went to in Chile.

Maria hopes to return to America some day soon.

Sandra Siemers who comes from the friendly and popular Netherlands can not believe all the people in America that can drive. In the Netherlands their means of transportation are bicycles and trains. When you turn 18 years old you may receive the priviledge of getting a drivers license.

Sandra comments that in the Netherlands you can choose any subjects at the school; not like it is in Tecumseh.

Sandra fills up her time with volleyball at Tecumseh High and she comments, "I like all sports, but volleyball most of all."

Silka Pfeiffer who comes from Germany, has been occupying her time at Tecumseh with gymnastics, reading, and writing letters to friends and family in her homeland, Germany.

Silka shares her view on the American people, she thinks the people in America are more open and she likes that. She also says that they think of more things to do.

Silka exclaims, "In Germany, the people can drink alcoholic beverages at the age of 16, which is a big gap from the drinking age of 21 here in America."

Silka's plans after returning home, are to complete 1½ years of high school and then pursue her education and go to college.

The last of our four Foreign Exchange Students that vary in personality as well as nationality, is Sayuri Otaki.

Sayuri comes from Japan, and she shares her feelings about her school in Japan compared to THS. In Japan they receive weekly schedules. Every week their schedules change compared to the classes here at THS, where you have your classes at least for nine weeks before you have a chance to change classes.

Sayuri explained what she does to occupy her free time; "Mostly shopping or if not doing that, I'm at home relaxing and listening to rock music."

Even though Sayuri does not participate in any school sports or clubs here in America, her school in Japan does not offer any in school clubs. If there were any, they would be held after school.

Sayuri said that after she got used to America she liked it here and will miss it, even though she's looking forward to going home.

THS students and faculty would like to thank these four exchange students for coming to Tecumseh and wishes them the best of luck in the future.

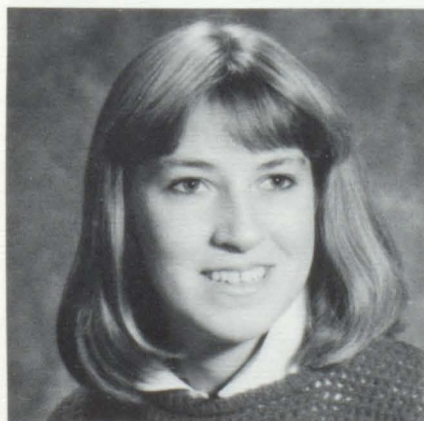

German exchange student — Silke Pfeiffer.

Chilean exchange student — Maria Coba.

Silke Pfeiffer, Maria Coba, Sayuri Otaki and Sandra Siemers — being together made the transition to this country a little easier.

A Colorful Day

Tecumseh High School was brimming with enthusiasm on October 12, 1984. It was the day of Homecoming. For the preceding week classes participated in activities such as powder puff football and the diligent preparation of the class float sections. The excitement that was building exploded during the Homecoming pep rally. Each class showed their spirit by wearing their class colors. The Seniors "Swabbed 'Em" with their white T-shirts, the Juniors "Gave 'Em the Hawaiian Punch" by wearing Hawaiian shirts and leis, the Sophomores "Chewed 'Em Up" by wearing eye-catching red shirts, and the Freshmen "Disposed Of 'Em" in their best green duds. Following the pep rally a parade of the classes marched down the streets of Tecumseh following the "Tecumseh Shooting Stars" as an exciting end to an exciting day.

However, the excitement was just beginning. Tecumseh students glowed with pride as the Indians beat Milan 22-13. At the game's halftime our Homecoming Queen was crowned. The cars with the representatives were as follows; Junior; Brenda Boot: Sophomore; Kris Patten: Freshman; Paula Stroud: and Seniors: Renee Solarski, Annette Carpenter and Amy Palmer. After making their way in front of the crowd, the band played "You Are So Beautiful" as Amy Palmer was crowned our new Homecoming Queen.

After the excitement of the game was over, the excitement of the dance began. Students danced to the music of "Akuda", the band chosen for this event. A quote from Mr. Nix, the Indian coach, sums it all up. He said, "It was an important win, and it makes the dance more fun for the kids. There was a good feeling in the air."

Prom

Tecumseh High School Gymnasium was the site of the 1985 Jr.-Sr. Prom. The theme, "Just One More Night", fit the evening beautifully as it will be remembered by all who attended it. The gym was decorated with lights and landscaping, with the ceiling being partially covered with a white material canopy. The band, The Cohort, played the theme song as prom king and queen, Ralph Booth and Kelly Kurutz, danced. Refreshments were provided in the cafeteria by Mrs. Forgacs and her Home Ec. classes while Chris Stubbs entertained on the piano. The Junior class did a superb job in honoring the seniors as they made yet another prom unforgettable.

Leadership in Action

This year's student council had a full agenda. With fifty-two members the student council has accomplished a great deal this year and spent much time improving our school. Leadership is an important part of the student council. This year's leaders were: President — Letty Worley; Vice President — Linda Nowak; Secretary — Kim McCann; and Treasurer — Lisa Gentry.

Student council has sponsored many activities. Among these activities were the Winter Carnival, Homecoming, Campus Clean Up, Canned Food Drive, and Student Leadership Forums.

Student council is most important to our student body because it is the representation of the students. It is the presentation of ideas from all students. It obtains ideas from the students and tries to accomplish these ideas to the best of their abilities. Student council is also a form of government, thus giving the members a learning experience with government. The way student council is set up, it gives the members a chance to enable themselves to speak their views on school functions. Letty Worley commented, "The opportunity to actively participate in student governments is one that should not be overlooked. It gives students a say in school functions and it also lets the students stand as individuals."

A Show To Remember

The 24th annual Student Exhibition was held on May 10-11 between the hours of three and nine and during the homeroom classes. The talent of students from Home Economics, Industrial Education, and art classes filled the gym and courtyard.

Along with the projects music was played in the gym. Mr. Frenzen stated, "It gets bigger and better every year, the music is a nice touch."

During the evening, a film of the T.Y.T. production of West Side Story was shown in the courtyard along with refreshments and entertainment provided by our choir and band.

Art was on display from the Junior High Industrial Arts classes.

As stated clearly by one of the onlookers, it truly was "... A show to remember."

Talent At THS

The '84-'85 Talent Show was another success. As usual, the student body assembled in the gym during seventh hour to watch their classmates show off their talent. There were a wide variety of performances including tap dancing, singing, "Officer Krupke", a skit from the play West Side Story, break dancing, and two rock bands, which students lingered to listen to even after the dismissal bell rang. Although, it came as no surprise to the students of THS concerning the talent represented, all who watched were impressed with it.

Back on the Right Course

"The 1984 golf season was a return to form for the Indians," pronounced Coach Cunningham. "It was the tenth time since 1968 our golfers had won the league championship."

The season really started in June with our players participating in junior tournaments in the area and state. Chris Napieralski finished second to a college player in the County Junior Championship.

At the beginning of the season Napieralski and Tom Clark finished strong in the Tecumseh Invitational to put THS in third place.

Later in the year, the Indians went to Ann Arbor Country Club for the Dexter match and really expected no trouble. Clark was medalist at 41 but the rest of the varsity scored from 46-55. There were a lot of team wins for the year but this was a team loss and a bitter one too, for it yanked us out of first place.

The Indians pulled back together and ended the season with varsity coming out on top over Adrian and accomplishing a 11-3 overall record. The J.V.'s were at 6-8, the first losing record for them in many years.

Tecumseh placed seventh out of sixteen teams at regionals with strong competition from Clark and Mike McDowell. Then, as we know, tied for first at league.

"Winning the S.E.C. was a great thrill," said Clark. "The statistics show that there were no superstars. We played better as a team than anyone in our league, and it showed."

The Indians lose two competitive players next year as seniors Mike McDowell, who received the Sportsmanship award, and Garry Richardson, who was Medalist five times this year, both graduate. Mike Crudder and Steve Nelson should both be playing varsity full time next year. This and the exceptional ability of the solid nucleus of Clark, Napieralski, Schaffer and Keith Alexander, Tecumseh should make some very loud noises in the golf scene in 1985.

Senior Garry Richardson keeps his eye on the ball — as all good golfers do.

Female Cagers Impressive

Under the direction of Coach Pomy, the Girls JV Basketball Team put forth a superior effort. Coach Pomy felt that "although unexperienced they played with poise."

The team's biggest disappointment was their loss in overtime to Lincoln. Their biggest victories were against Bedford and Chelsea.

The most valuable player on the team was Liz Marvin. She was the only player on the whole team to start every game. Her importance to the team should be recognized.

At the record of 13-7 the girls overall had a great season. The team has improved and should continue to do well next year.

Season Drags By For Cagers

There aren't too many words to describe a 3-18 record except disappointing. The 1984 Girls Varsity Basketball team had a hard season. With only three returning varsity players, inexperience was one of the key problems the team had to deal with. Though the many losses made the season seem even longer, the Indians kept their heads up. The only awards received this year were: Kathy Bakus, Honorable Mention All-League; Andrea Clark, Honorable Mention Ann Arbor News. Hopefully, next year, Tecumseh can combine their height advantage and skill and win the S.E.C. title.

Frustrating Season

The Tecumseh Boy's Cross Country Team was faced with a difficult season. Their overall results were 1-11. League results were even more disappointing, with the Indians going 0-6.

The team and Mr. Croft were embarrassed at Saline when they lost 15-50. But an overwhelming victory at Willow Run was the high point in the season.

The team captain for 1984 was Chris Tilton who kept the team spirit going. There was no MVP but as Mr. Croft commented "Even though the team was young and inexperienced, Mark Poling and Dan Brackney competed super as freshman." This team is the beginning of a new tradition in cross country and with more practice and coaching, next year's team will end its season with an outstanding record.

And our cross country team stretching.

Promising Season

Both the J.V. and the Freshmen Football teams had promising seasons. The Freshmen team did very well considering that there was no Jr. High football. The players worked very hard and were excited and enthusiastic about their team.

The team as a whole had many fine players. As Coach Osburn stated "There were no outstanding individuals, the entire team worked hard to make this season an excellent one."

The J.V. team also had a very promising season. The team was full of hard working solid citizens. Now that the team has a year of experience under their belt the prospects are great.

Although all of the players helped to keep their team in all of the games, there were four players that produced many exciting moments. They were Jeff McMunn, who ended the season as the lead-ball carrier. Dave Taylor proved to be very needed as the leading defensive player, Mike Ross was very valuable as the leading blocker, while Dennis Roback performed all of the kicking duties.

Forfeitting Season

The cross country team had a rough season due to lack of participation. Because of this, the team had to forfeit all but the first two meets, which they won.

By the end of the season there were three remaining team members. Brenda boot was our most valuable team member. Kelly Thomas, a freshman was a good asset, she improved her time by six minutes. Last but not least Jeanne Vanerheide who could not compete due to injury.

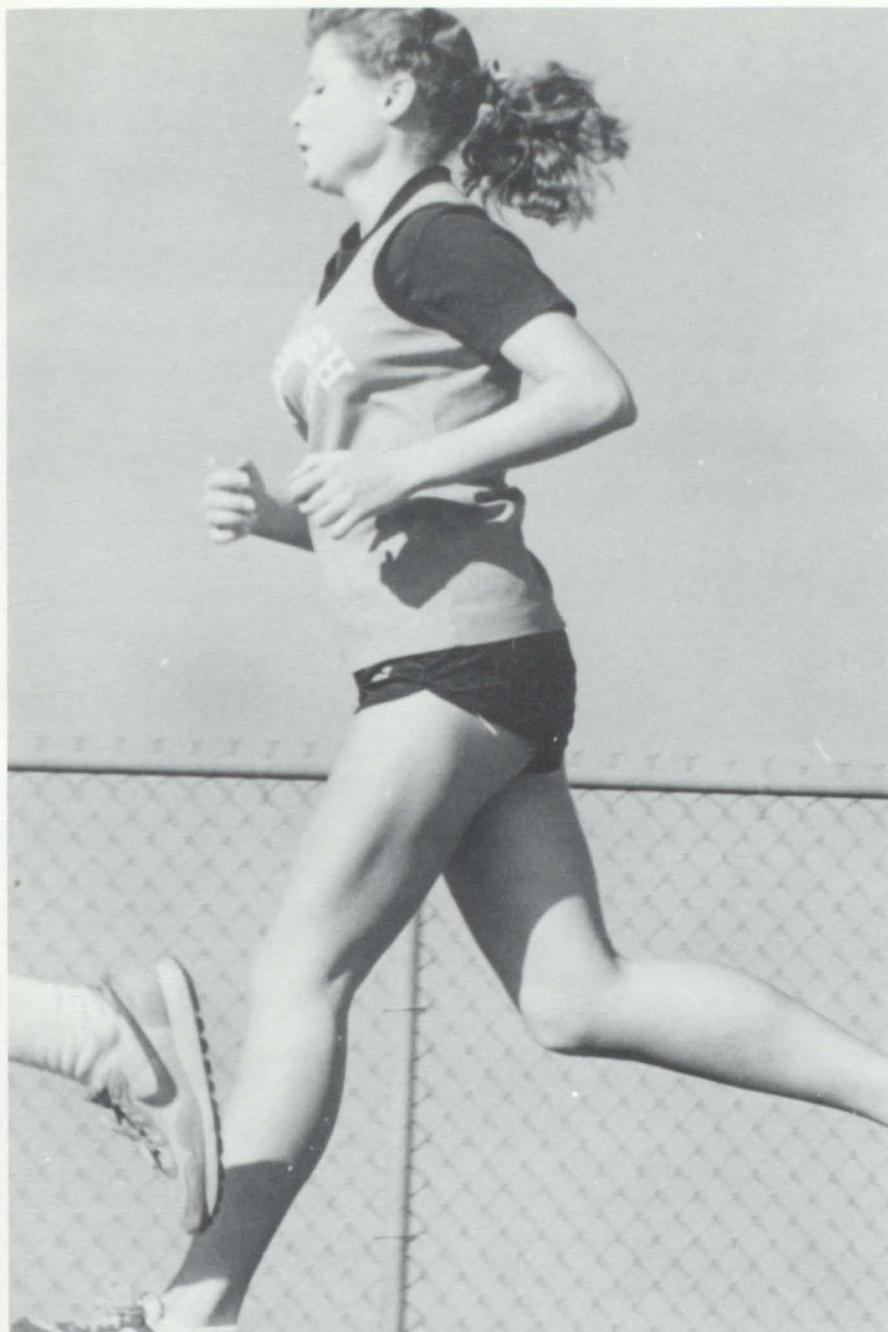

Brenda Boot also was all league and state qualifier. Brenda will be the captain of next year's cross country team.

The overall record for this years cross country team is two wins and six losses.

Strength Proves

This fall Tecumseh Football fans were very enthusiastic about the 1984 season. The Indian team did not let them down, finishing second in league standings with a 4-2 league record. "Even though it rained through a couple of the games, the Indians still provided the crowd with many exciting moments," exclaimed senior, Jennifer Foss.

Under the influence of coach Wayne Nix, the Indian team found their greatest thrill when they downed Pickney 22-0. The team's greatest assets were the senior leadership of Bob Bagby, Ralph Booth, Eric Hoffman and Tom Moore as team captains. Physical strength put all the power behind the Indian players. "The 1984 team is the strongest of any Tecumseh team," remarked Coach Nix.

Selected as the most valuable player of 1984 was senior Eric Hoffman. A career record of 17 interceptions was set up by senior Jamie Nicholson, which broke the standing record of 12 interceptions set up by David Biscupski in 1973. A 1,000 yard rush record was achieved by senior Eric Hoffman.

Junior Scott Thomas, seniors Tim Vannatter, Bob Bagby and Jamie Nicholson were named All-League First Team Defense. Named to All-League First Team Offense was junior, Scott Thomas and senior Eric Hoffman.

The team trainer was senior David Webb. Seniors Tim Tilton and Kevin Robinson carried the responsibilities of team managers. "Those three guys helped a lot, and it was not always easy dealing with us," commented one player.

Many of the junior players will be returning in the 1985 season. With them and the coaching experience of Mr. Nix, Mr. Ondrovick and Mr. Schmidt, how can we lose?

High Enthusiasm

"We're rowdy! We're mean! We're the fighting Indian team!" This is what you might hear at a football game or a basketball game.

And who are the people that spark up the enthusiasm in the crowd? They are our cheerleaders, directed by Mrs. Gunder.

To be a cheerleader much time and dedication must be put forth. The cheerleaders must participate in every practice and attend camp during the summer. This year was very successful — thanks to Mrs. Gunder. "It was real exciting, and we were all proud to take first place out of 50 other squads," said J.V. cheerleader Michelle LeVeck.

"Next year's squads will be just as good because there's a lot of talent out there," said Mrs. Gunder.

Netters Break Even

The 1985 J.V. Volleyball season went fairly well, with an ending record of 8-8. Coach Pomy was guided along with the help of team captains Liz Marvin and Heidi Kuhman.

"The teams greatest thrill was almost beating Monroe St. Mary at the Bedford Tournament. They were the toughest team the girls faced this year. The score of that game was 16-14," remarked Coach Pomy.

The specific factors that attributed to the teams overall record were a good attitude, and the ability to come from behind.

"We may have just had an average season, but we had a lot of fun!" commented freshmen Kristy Feldkamp.

Outstanding Season

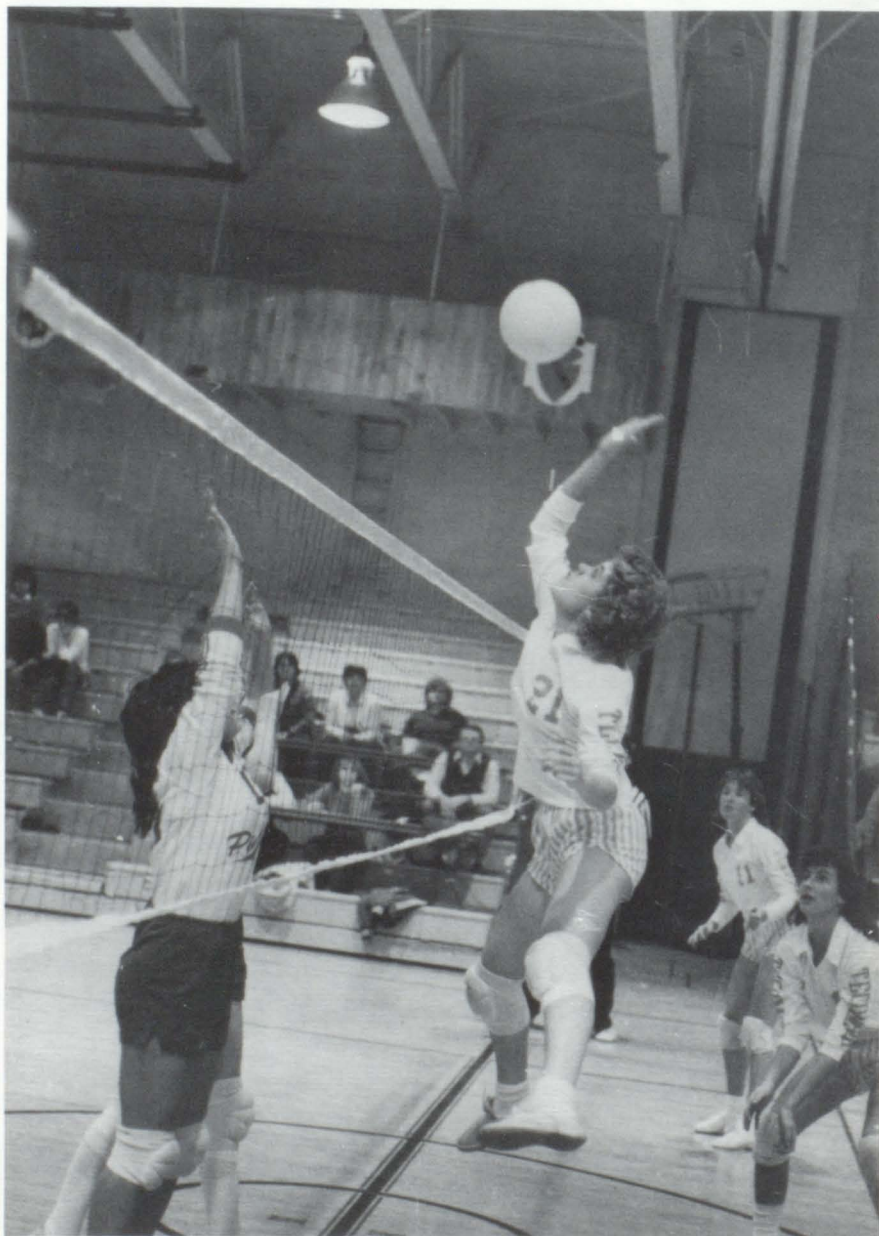

The 1985 Varsity Volleyball team had an outstanding season, finishing second overall in the league standings, with a 7-5 record.

"They proved to be a very strong and motivated team," said Coach Todd.

The team's greatest thrill was winning the Lenawee County Tournament.

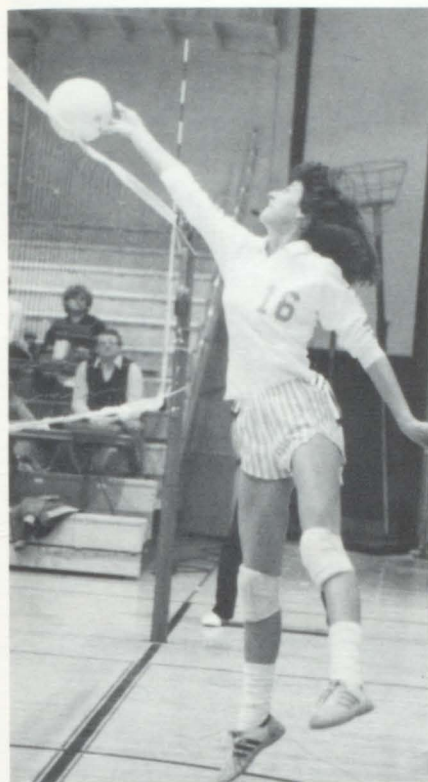

The team obtained some very talented players in '85. Juniors, Debi Bailey, Andrea Clark, and sophomore Kelly Hartley were named to the All County Team. Clark was placed on the All League first team and Bailey was placed on the All League Second team. Hartley and juniors, Becky Lange and Chris Harris received Honorable Mention. The Ann Arbor News All Region Team selected Bailey, for the team and Clark and Lange both received Honorable Mention.

Undefeated! Yes, our Gymnastic's Team finished their season 12-0! The team was third in regional standings as well as placing in the top 10 in the state. Sherry Funk went on to state with her floor exercises. She also, set a new record with her floor routine and Kristen McFadden advanced to state on the uneven bars. Other regional qualifiers were Brandi Pawlowski who finished all around, Vickie Ridgeway with beam and vault routines and Gretchen Funk on floor exercises.

The biggest achievement of the Gymnastic team was when they beat both Saline and Jackson County Western. Our teams' wide variety of talent was the key to their victories this year. All the members took an active part in the teams' success! Congratulations!

Rough Season

The Tecumseh Wrestling Team had a rough season going 0-15. But there were outstanding individuals, such as Bob Bagby, who had a seasonal record of 20-9 with 12 pins. Bagby finished 2nd at the Addison Tournament, Ann Arbor News Area Tournament, and the Monroe Invitational. At the District Tournament Bob finished 4th. His most outstanding achievement was finishing 1st in the County Tournament. Other outstanding players were Rob Scheyett, who finished 4th at the Addison, Ann Arbor News Area and County Tournaments, as well as being 3rd in the District Tournament. A good seasonal record also went to Rob Parros who's record was 22-13. He also did well in the tournaments.

Hopefully, next year will turn out to be a better year for the team as a whole, and continue to be an excellent year for individuals.

Hard Work Pays Off

Having a good season was something that both the J.V. and freshmen basketball teams learned about this year. The J.V. team had an excellent season at home, thrilling the crowds with every game. A very good defense and a strong inside game are just some of the reasons that the J.V. squad was so successful. This was a very strong team overall, but three players ended the season with over 130 points and 100 rebounds. They were Jeff McMunn, Jeff Clark, and Eddie Wilson.

The Freshmen team also had an exciting season, finishing with a winning record. A very good attitude as a team and the desire to improve as individuals are the reasons that this team improved throughout the season. Two individuals that proved to be great assets to the team were Justin Bladecki as the leading scorer and Tim Bryan as the leading rebounder.

Average? No Way!

How can a season be described when it has seven wins and fourteen losses? Average? The 1984-'85 Varsity Boys Basketball team was far from average. They had the talent and the skill, but often it wasn't enough to pull out the win. Coach Oxley said that the most thrilling event of the season was beating second place, S.E.C. team, Milan. He also commented that the 45-43 loss to Adrian took its toll.

"This year's season was a disappointment (record-wise), but we played hard and never quit. With a few good breaks we could have had a winning record. I was proud to be on the Orange Team," commented Ryan Cadmus.

One of this year's co-captains, Tim Vannatten, was named to the second team, all-league. Kevin Johnson received honorable mention.

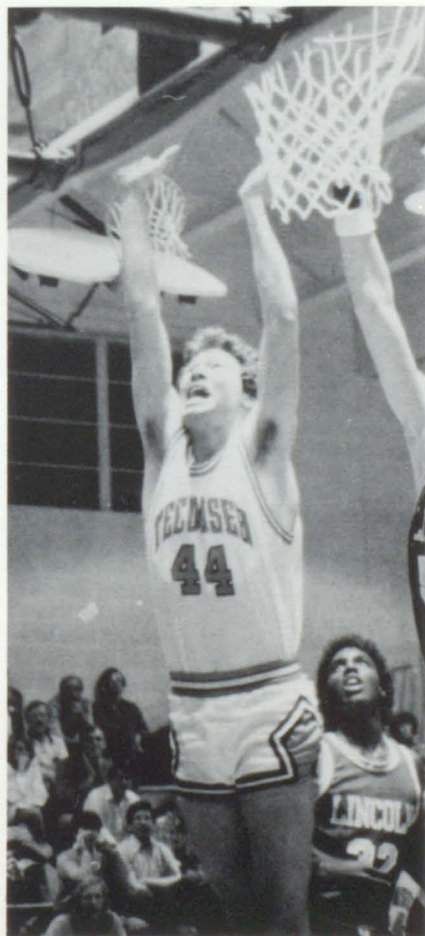

Jamie Nicholson and Ryan Cadmus, both seniors, try to stop their opponent from making a basket.

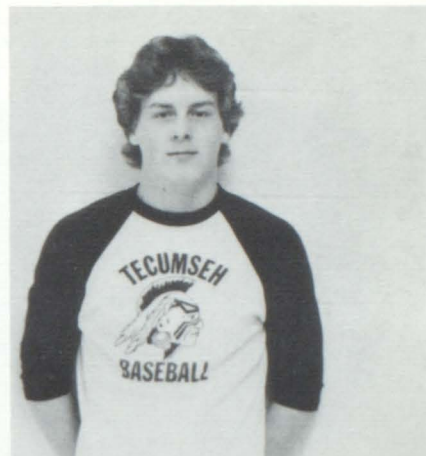

Senior, Kevin Johnson, shoots for two.

Junior, Chad Anschuetz, had no problem making two points here.

Senior, Mike McDowell, goes up for the rebound.

Senior, Tim Vannatter, was the leading scorer and rebounder for the season.

Girls Have a Fair Season

The girls track season went very well. This years record was 6-2 and 1 tie. The teams biggest thrill was defeating Adrian 68-60. In the final league standings Tecumseh was ranked 6th.

This years captains were Annette Carpenter and Jeanne Poling.

As Michelle LeVeck put it "The over-all season went pretty good, but it was not as good as last year's season. There was not the enthusiasm and dedication this season as last years. We will also miss Mr. Oxley not coaching our team next year."

Boys Have a Good Season

The boys track team had a good season. Tecumseh finished 3rd in league, regional standings and Tecumseh Relays.

Many individuals set new goals with five team members, Kevin Johnson, Ralph Booth, Tom Baker, Garry Richardson and Tom Hawkins reaching All-League. Not only did these members make All-League but they also set new records in various events. Kevin Johnson finished this season with a total of three new records in the 100, 200 and the 400 Relay.

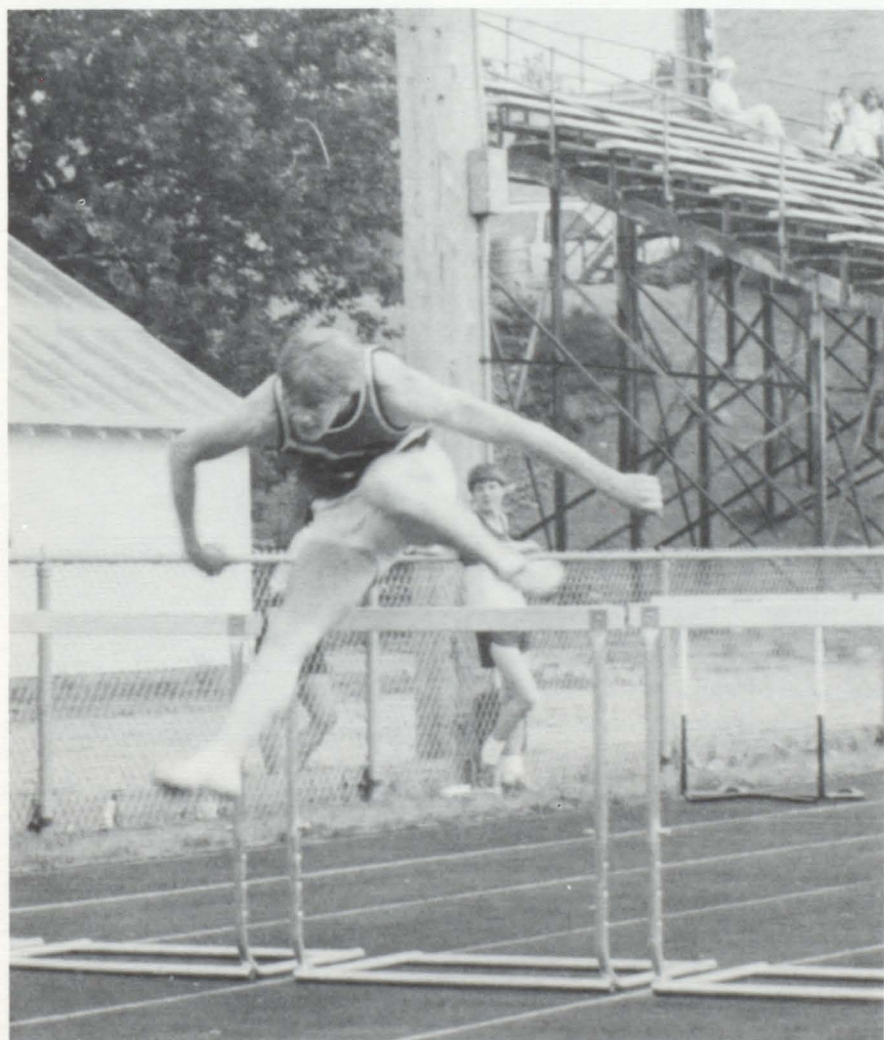

As a team their best meet was the County Meet. Their most difficult meet was against Saline in which they lost 59-78.

In all, the team has finished with a fine effort and great seasonal records.

Dan Brackney, Kevin Johnson, Tom Baker, Tom Hawkins, Jim Bache and Ralph Booth were State Qualifiers.

Girls Learn From Mistakes

"It was fun and we worked really hard," commented Liz Marvin, of the J.V. Softball season. They may have worked really hard, but it just didn't pay off. The J.V. Softball team had a record of 3-16.

The team had a lot of spirit and worked very well as a team. Their girls scored 31 runs in this round-about.

A newcomer to the team, freshman, Brandi Powlowski remarks "We learned from our mistakes and we made progress with each game." The '86 season will come with great improvements; all of the players are looking forward to it.

Almost Success

Dedication, talent, and a 5-7 record helped the Varsity Softball team move from last place to fourth place in the S.E.C. league standings. Coach Aiuto said that the team's biggest thrill was winning at Dexter because our team won only by a score of 4-3. No new records were set this year, although four team members received special recognition awards. They were: Kris Deatruck, 2nd team, all-league; Lisa Tiede, Diana Lawrence, and Chris Vannatter all received all-league honorable mention.

Senior, Angie Bechtol, was voted Most Athletically Inclined Girl in the Class of '85.

Hard Workers

The Freshmen and J.V. Baseball teams each had promising seasons. The Freshmen team worked hard all year and wanted to learn. They hit the ball well and played aggressively all year. Their overall record of 4-2 showed this. The team's biggest thrill was scoring twenty-eight runs against Britton. The team should be very solid in 1986 and a person to watch for is Steve Blatt. He hit well all year striking out only two times.

The J.V. team went 5-14 for the season. They often had strong early innings. Their downfall usually occurred in the late innings. "A lack of pitching and good defense are some factors that contributed to our overall record," commented Coach Corley. The team captains were Alan Slocum and Mike Conrad, both sophomores. The most valuable players were Conrad and sophomore Jeff Borton. Both had excellent seasons, hitting over .300.

Varsity Batters Place Third

The Varsity baseball team went 10-14 overall and 8-4 in the league placing them third for the season. "They had a hard time developing the proper chemistry for consistency," said Coach Ondrovick, "but, in many of the games we had great comebacks."

Speaking of comebacks . . . the team's most thrilling games included those against Jackson Northwest and Lincoln. The low point of the '85 season was being beat by Whitmore Lake.

In All League, Bill Rinne was placed on 2nd team (infield) and Tim Vannatter on 2nd team (outfield). Vannatter also broke the school record for Career "Triples" with five for the season.

Chad Anschuetz, junior, makes the catch.

New Athletic Director Overwhelms T.H.S.

On October 1, 1984, Mr. Gail Shinall was hired as the Director of Athletics for Tecumseh High School. Mr. Shinall took the job over from Rick Montcalm on Monday, October 8. He was previously employed at Madison High School as the head of the Physical Education Department. He held that position for eleven years. He is also the wrestling coach at Siena Heights. Mr. Shinall participated in wrestling and football in high school. He attended college at Western Michigan University where he earned his Bachelor's Degree. He earned his Master's Degree at Eastern.

Mr. Shinall is married and has two sons who both attend school in Adrian; which is where he and his family reside. Mr. Shinall is a busy man, but in his spare time he likes to golf and fish.

When asked what he thought of T.H.S. Mr. Shinall replied with a smile, "I like it alot. I'm impressed with the way the student body handles themselves, especially at assemblies."

Especially For Seniors

We've shared spirit in our victories
And overcome defeat
We've worked and laughed
Both side by side
But now the time has come
You'll soon be moving on Though tears may fall to see you go
The memories are fond Best wishes as you take this step
To voyages on in time
May each day rewarding
And each mountain less to climb.

Class Night

After weeks of preparation, May 31st, 1985, Class Night '85 had come and gone with alot of smiling and teary-eyed faces.

Leading the class in were 12 pink panthers swaying their tails and dancing to the tune "The Pink Panther." As everyone was settled in, amature night at T.H.S. was ready to begin.

This year's theme was KTHS radio and throughout the night the D.J.'s, Kevin Johnson, Karie Thomas and Kris Deatruck entertained and interrupted with important news flashes.

The skits included Stripes THS, Out Here On My Own, performed by Tama Wallace, Class Memories, Time Machine, performed by Ruth Langmeyer and Amy Neitling, Exchange Students, Rappin' Seniors, featuring Mr. Crittenden and Mr. Graham and last but not least the senior farewell.

With the receiving of Funny Awards, the presentation of the class key to the juniors, and poetry readings from Beth Dobrosky and Lisa Tiede, the class of '85 Class Night was a huge success.

As the night came to a close, the traditional playing of the class song and a slide presentation was again part of the fun.

Special thanks goes out to Mrs. Kinnard, Mr. Crittenden and Mr. Graham, without whom the production could not have been possible.

A New Beginning

It was a beautiful day, June 9th 1985. The grandstands were filled with the faces of proud parents, grandparents, and friends. Down below was the graduating class of 1985, anxiously awaiting the arrival of the proudest moment in their lives.

The girls were dressed in light blue robes and they carried white carnations tipped in blue. The boys were dressed in dark blue robes and they wore white carnations tipped in blue.

Starting the ceremony, Reverend Richard Edgerton gave the invocation and then turned the stage over to Miss Kelli Crittenden, Salutatorian of the class.

Mr. Lacny, Tecumseh High School's principal presented awards to the graduates. Proceeding the presentation of awards class Valedictorian, Miss Karen Prezioso, gave a speech and wished her fellow graduates good luck.

Finally the big moment arrived when the diplomas were handed out and the graduates entered adulthood. Reverend Richard Edgerton gave the benediction which ended the ceremony. The 208 graduates departed knowing that they had accomplished a major goal in life. Congratulations to the class of 1985.

The graduates listen intently to Mr. Lacny.

And in they come ...

Cousins, Kelli Gilpin and Sherri Garner.

And the caps flew as Mr. Lacny pronounced the class of '85 "graduated"!

Off they go . . .

The History Of The Class of 1985

At last the time was upon us, we were entering high school as freshmen. The changes and adjustments during our freshmen year were to be the most valuable ones in all of our years at THS. We began school with a large class population of 250 people. Mrs. Judd took the position of our class advisor. The class officers were: Pres. — Craig Rudolph; Vice Pres. — Rob Schyett; Sec. — Letty Worley; Treas. — Kris Deatrack. Our first big event was upon us — Homecoming. We excitedly began the construction of our float. Muppet characters were selected as the theme. We chose Animal as our character, beating out the slogan "Drum 'Em". Our Homecoming Representative was Renee Solarski. We captured the spirit award and the tug-of-war at the pep rally. As we progressed on, our fears of high school seemed to dissipate. Another big event was upon us — Winter Carnival. The freshmen class sponsored the football throw booth.

Before we knew it we were Sophomores. The class officers were: Pres. — Kris Deatrack; Vice Pres. — Letty Worley; Sec. — Beth Stempky; Treas. — Scott McCarley. With the defeat of the millage spirits were quite low. To raise spirits Oktoberfest was devised as a substitution for Homecoming. Many of the same traditions were followed. Renee Solarski was once again elected to represent the class in the Queen's Court. For the second year in a row we won the spirit award and the tug-o-war at the pep rally. We had a football game consisting of Indians vs. Indians. The grey clouds began to clear with the introduction of a parent support group entitled "Show The Kids We Care". The group raised enough money to reinstate the rest of the sports and clubs for the rest of the year.

Going into our Junior year with the feeling that we were on our way out! We had a drop in population which left us with 216 class members. Mr. Graham and Mr. Crittenden volunteered to take the position as our class advisors. The class officers were: Pres. — Ryan Cadmus; Vice Pres. — Linda Nowak; Sec. — Garry Richardson; Treas. — Bill Rinne. Homecoming was reinstated, but instead of having four separate floats, all of the classes combined strategies and made one large float to represent THS. Each class got together and decorated a car to represent their class. Our car came in last place. Dawn Ketola was elected to represent the class in the Queen's Court. For the third year in a row we won the spirit award and the tug-o-war. As a fundraiser we sold magazines. This money would be used to help with Senior expenses. During the midst of our year a friend was taken by death, Danielle Gill. A new activity was added to tradition — TICWSS. TICWSS stands for Tecumseh Indians Celebrate Winter Sport Season. It was much like Homecoming. We chose Jamie Nicholson as the class representative in the King's Court. The traditional responsibilities of sponsoring the Prom was upon us. The theme "The Best Is Yet To Come", set an uplifting mood. The Prom was held on a warm May evening at Sauk Valley in the Irish Hills. We ended the year on an up note, knowing when we returned, the soon to be vacant senior position would be ours to reign.

The year we all had been waiting for — Senior Year! The class officers were Pres. — Ryan Cadmus; Vice Pres. — Ruth Langmeyer; Sec. — Sherrie Kanous; Treas. — Grace Carlson. Homecoming was upon us for the last time, we tried to make the most of it. Once again there was one float to represent THS, but having a class car was prohibited. The Queen's Court consisted of Annette Carpenter, Amy Palmer, and Renee Solarski. Amy Palmer was crowned Queen for 1985. For the fourth year in a row the class won the spirit award, but the tug-o-war was captured by the class of '86. All throughout the year preparation for Graduation continued. Ordering caps, gowns, and invitations were just part of the details. Getting our minds set on the future and after-school plans, we visited colleges, hunted for jobs, and anxiously awaited the day when the diploma would be ours. Once again TICWSS was held. Jamie Nicholson, Tim Vannatter, and Kevin Johnson were selected for the King's Court. Kevin Johnson was crowned King for 1985. Finally spring came and with it came advanced cases of Senioritis. June 9 arrived before we knew it. 208 graduates assembled on Tecumseh's athletic field for commencement ceremonies. Not knowing what lie ahead we ventured away from the large monumental structure, but always carrying with us the memories of THS and the friendships that we made.

Editor's Note

Another year has passed and the entire yearbook staff hopes that the Anath '85 will help you to rekindle and recall the memories of the past year. The theme of the book, Looking Forward to Looking Back, was chosen to represent the thoughts of us all as we grow older and move on to newer things.

I would like to thank the entire yearbook staff with special thanks to the editors of each specific departments: Jackie Vaughn, Renee Solarski, Kelly Feldkamp, Jason Carter and Peggy McCarley. Thanks also goes to Doug Bynum our representative from Hunter Publishing Company and to Mrs. Stevens, our advisor, who deserves very special recognition for her never ending patience and problem solving ability. I would lastly like to thank the student body for providing the memories that we have captured to entice you to be . . . Looking Forward to Looking Back.

Sincerely,
Kelli Gilpin
