BEYOND THE STACKS

News from Tecumseh District Library

We've enjoyed the summer at TDL and the opportunity to return to some of our former practices. Our Summer Reading Programs were a lot of fun; it was delightful to see the children with their stacks of books! We took our Pop-up Library to the Tecumseh Farmer's Market on a monthly basis this summer to talk about the services we offer and hand out free books to the shoppers there. Our Community Survey was completed and tallied, and as a result of the survey, we've initiated an evening book club in addition to our long-running afternoon book club. We support the success of the community's children with our digital library card, available to any student enrolled at Tecumseh Public Schools. The card provides access to our digital resources, such as Overdrive/Libby, MEL databases, Tutor.com and Mango, the language program. Our wonderful Friends group is back at it, holding big book sales again the first Saturday of each month.

We've been able to offer some in-person programming outdoors this summer, in addition to a variety of virtual programs. Check out our upcoming schedule of programs at <http://www.eventkeeper.com/mars/xpages/t/tecumseh/ek.cfm>

As always, we encourage reading, learning and exploration, so we hope you'll take some time this fall to choose something wonderful from our collection to read and enjoy!

TDL's Quick Guide To Book Genres

As we settle into the beautiful autumn season, our staff at TDL suggests that this is the perfect time to branch out and try a genre beyond the ones you normally read.

It's fun to try something different; maybe you'll find a new author to follow!

Our newsletter this season covers some of the many fiction genres, and offers a few titles and authors as a starting place. Enjoy!

Short Stories

Short story collections are usually written by a single author, and each story can be read in one sitting. They feature fewer characters and often share a theme.

Some titles we suggest:

A Manual for Cleaning Women
by Lucia Berlin

You Think It, I'll Say It
by Curtis Sittenfeld

Her Body and Other Parties
by Carmen Maria Machado

Give these authors a quick look:

John Green

Alice Munro

Ernest Hemingway

Haruki Murakami

David Sedaris

WESTERNS

The Western is a type of fiction set primarily in the latter half of the 19th and early 20th century in the "Wild West". Westerns often stress the harshness of the wilderness and frequently set the action in an arid, desolate landscape of deserts and mountains. Cowboys, bad guys, lawlessness, sheriffs, ranches, saloons, railways, and shootouts are heavily featured in these novels.

Some recommended westerns:

The Last of the Breed
by Louis L'Amour

A Quiet, Little Town
by William W. Johnstone

The Last Kind Words Saloon
by Larry McMurtry

Partner up with these authors:

Louis L'Amour

Larry McMurtry

Zane Grey

Elmer Kelton

Elmore Leonard

Historical Fiction

Novels set in the past are a popular form of fiction. Authors of historical fiction keep the manners, social conditions, and events of that time period unchanged. These novels are often an easy way to absorb history.

Some popular new historical fiction titles include:

The Four Winds
by Kristin Hannah

Where The Crawdads Sing
by Delia Owens

The Personal Librarian
by Marie Benedict

Excellent authors of historical fiction:

Ken Follett

Hilary Mantel

Bernard Cornwell

Geraldine Brooks
